Explanation of the series of events (write in chronological order, based on the e-mail analysis):

The e-mails show a suspected illegal lightsaber deal between Darth Vader (dvader454@yahoo.com), Sith Lord (sith_lord8989@hotmail.com), and Jabba (jabba.the.hut1212@gmail.com). On 8 April 2014, Sith Lord told Darth Vader that he had found a buyer for "Black Market Light Sabers", offering extra money if the lightsabers had belonged to a real Jedi Knight and if Luke Skywalker's hand was still attached. Darth Vader accepted, claimed to own 20 lightsabers, agreed to a price of 16,500 space bucks each, and offered Sith Lord a 10% commission in return for his silence, which suggests an attempt to hide the origin of the items. Sith Lord warned that the buyer, Jabba, could become violent if the deal fell through, but Darth chose to continue and asked to be introduced to him.

Sith Lord then introduced the two, and Jabba asked for proof of authenticity. Darth sent photos of the lightsabers, and later a zip file of certificates whose contents are labelled "Fake Authenticity Papers", which indicates that the documents were forged. Jabba agreed to pay in two stages and then sent a link to an executable file (Jabbas_Money.exe) supposedly for the payment. Darth reported that the link was dead, Jabba resent it in another format, and on 10 April 2014 Darth reported that he still could not access the money. The mailbox contains no later e-mails, so it cannot be confirmed from the e-mails alone whether the payment was completed or the items were delivered.

Conclusion

In this lab, the suspect image Vader_Home_Computer.001 was mounted with FTK Imager and the Thunderbird mailbox (Inbox, Sent, and Trash) was analyzed with MiTeC Mail View. The mailbox belongs to Darth Vader (dvader454@yahoo.com), whose first received e-mail was a Yahoo account activation message and whose first sent e-mail was a reply to Olive Garden, both on 5 April 2014. The e-mail analysis shows indications of criminal activity: Darth Vader, Sith Lord (sith_lord8989@hotmail.com), and Jabba (jabba.the.hut1212@gmail.com) negotiated the sale of lightsabers allegedly taken from Jedi, including Luke Skywalker's, with a commission offered for silence, forged "Fake Authenticity Papers", and a payment link to an executable file (Jabbas_Money.exe). However, the e-mails end on 10 April 2014 with Darth still unable to access the payment, so it cannot be confirmed whether the money was paid or the items were delivered. This lab shows that e-mail evidence can reveal the people involved, the timeline, and the intent behind a crime, but further investigation is needed to confirm the final outcome.
